The 1968 Annual Staff respectfully dedicates this edition of
THE EAGLE to the memory of our fellow classmate, Roy Crabtree.

The old order changeth,
yielding place to new,
And God fulfills himself
in many ways,
Lest one good custom should corrupt the world.

Last Will And Testament

- I, Tootie Adkins, having cleated body, leave the ability to get tackled in a football game to anyone dumb enough to get in Jerry's way.
- I, David Agan, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave my half-desk to the next boy in bookkeeping.
- I, Ronald Anthony, leave my bag of glue to Billy Johnson or Bobby Chambers, whoever gets it first.
- I, Linda Baird, being of weak body and no mind, will my "spot remover" to Rebecca Musialowski in hopes that it will work for her.
- I, Ronnie Barker, being of shattered nerves and battered mind, do hereby leave my monogrammed Levis' to Mr. Nelson.
- I, Gail Barnes, being of dense mind and shapeless body, do hereby leave Mother Whatley to all the juniors.
- I, Bobby Beaver, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave my seat on the basketball bus to Jimmy Wyatt.
- I, Dan Blanton, having no mind and underweight body, do hereby leave Coosa to the 68-69 student body, Now hopefully, I leave.
- I, Lynn Bowles, leave my patented first quarter runs to Bubba; and to "Coerch" Bragg, I leave some of my long hair; he'll need it.
- I, Renae Brock, being of little mind and hairy body, do hereby leave to Johnny Weeks my title of "Bear."
- I, James Camp, do hereby leave my ability to infuriate Mr. Tidmore and get away with it to Robert Baird.
- I, Charlotte Cannon, hereby leave my desk in office practice to anyone who thinks he can make an "A."
- I, Sara Cantrell, being of deranged mind and warped body, do hereby leave my nickname "Mote" to anyone who wants to be called a Japanese jet pilot.
- I, Harold Chambers, being of tall body and confused mind, do hereby leave my nickname of "Gobbler" to Max the Frawg and Sara Burke Wingard.
- I, John Crane, being of underdeveloped mind and pickled body, do hereby leave my red hair to Mr. Wilson because I'm sure he'd appreciate it no matter what color it is.
- I, Phil Crane, being of all mind and no body, leave Coosa, I hope, with all my credits and good looks.
- I, Marsha Coats, being of warped mind and grubby body, leave my shorthand grades to Vina Clymore.
- I, Rudy Colston, being of weak mind and body, do leave my ability to sleep through every class with my eyes wide open.
- I, Cora Colts, do hereby leave my place in English IV to the class of 1968-69.
- I, Arron Couey, being of dirty mind and dusty body, leave to Gene Cowart my large dust mop.
- I, Kenneth Couey, being without mind but sound body, do hereby leave my L.S.D. to Billy Johnson.
- I, Linda Cromer, being of weak mind and weak body, leave my ability to talk a lot to Joy Blanton.
- I, Ronnie DeAngelus, being of sound mind and puny body, do hereby leave my height to any poor soul over six feet tall.
- I, Debbie Dearman, do hereby leave my colorguard uniform to my successor, hoping it means as much to her as it has to me.
- I, John Doolin, being of unproportional body and forgetful mind, do hereby leave my autobiography How to Play Guard to "Crazy Legs" Hicks.
- I, Peggy Downs, being of warped mind and hardly any body, do hereby leave my cast to any girl who is dumb enough to play tackle football.
- I, LaJuana Dunn, leave next year's second period office assistant cold feet - received distributing absentee bulletins during freezing weather.
- I, Bobbe Duvall, being of mystical mind and robed body, do hereby leave my horoscope to any Libra not afraid of being ridiculed.
- I, Lynn Edmonds, leave Bitsy Burton my aerials so she will have twice as many to pick up and will my right-handed co-ordination to left-handed Becky Schwartz.
- I, Maria Fernandez, hereby leave Miss Wingard with extreme happiness and joy.
- I, Marcia Fincher, do hereby leave "Mother" my permanent pressed dress.

- I, Frankie Fowler, being of sound mind and stringy body, leave my spider webs to anyone who happens to get "hung up."
- I, Vonda Fox, being of tired fingers, hereby leave the task of typing the absentee report to anyone courageous enough to attempt it.
- I, Jenny Fuller, being of speckled body and absent mind, leave my ability to sneak to Pepperell to Marion Broome in hopes that it does her more good than it did me.
- I, Randy Garrett, being of tall body and weak mind, do hereby leave my height to James Little.
- I, Shelia Green, leave my loss of time (not knowing where it goes) to Debbie Vick, in hopes that she may find it.
- I, Joanna Greene, do hereby leave my ability to do homework during band to Jennie Givens and Denise Wagner, and my seat in the lounge to my sister, Lisa.
- I, James Heard, being of foggy mind and warped body, leave Coosa School ... forever.
- I, Martha Henry, leave my ability to "ghost-write" senior themes during my junior year, to anyone lucky enough to get by with it.
- I, Joe Holder being of sound mind and hopeless body, do hereby leave my sympathy to all of next year's seniors.
- I, Johnny Hollifield, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave my sound mind to a deserving junior.
- I, Janet Hunt, leave my hall passes to Mickey Graves and my glamorous red coat to be fought over by all girls interested.
- I, Margie Irwin, leave my courtesy, sexy voice, co-ordination, and tremendous height to Susan Williams - one cheerleader I didn't have to look up to.
- I, Ronnie Johnson, being of strong body and warped mind, do hereby leave Sergeant Wilson and his force to Luanne Ost.
- I, Barbara Leach, leave the "Old Mill Wheel" to any other girls besides Janet, Linda, Peggy, or myself, who are dumb enough to get on it.
- I, Linda Lee, being of warped mind, tired body, leave Mr. Nelson my Bob Hope Fan Club card.
- I, Mrs. Carolyn Littlejohn, do hereby leave Coosa School in such a hurry that I don't have time to will anything!
- I, Lynn Lloyd, leave to Lavada Simmons my ability to fall down bleachers, stairs, and bus steps in hopes that she will make better use of co-ordination.
- I, Becky Loftin, being of minute mind, do hereby leave my ability to photograph Miss Wingard in tight spots to anyone willing to risk it.
- I, Kathy Loftin, leave to Mrs. Long my three sisters who are all like me: quiet, kind, smart, shy, and most of all, modest.
- I, Janice Loveless, of unbalanced mind and not enough body, do hereby leave fabulous vocal ability to Ellen Griffin and Robert Baird.
- I, Nancy Lynch, being of underdeveloped mind and nervous body, do hereby leave my nerve pills to Mrs. Wagner and Mrs. Lucas in hopes that they will be able to return as Student Council advisors next year.
- I, Gloria Marks, being a freshman at Tennessee Temple next year, leave my peanut butter to all the Coosa, Georgia Crackers.
- I, Brenda McCurley, being of undeveloped mind and exhausted body, do hereby leave Karen Wigley my algebra book with the answers.
- I, Carrie McGill, being of weak body and poor mind, hereby leave Miss Wingard to the seniors of next year.
- I, Pat McGill, do hereby leave my position as office assistant to another who has strong running legs. Being of no mind and even less body, I, Gail Montague, do hereby leave my size 8 "Twiggy" fashions to "Slim, Jr."
- I, Larry Montgomery, being of feeble mind and shattered body, leave my ability to do English homework to all the juniors.
- I, Kathy Mount, do hereby leave my ever-existing "hic-cups" to my dear friend, Randy Holder.
- I, Bob Murdock, being surprised that I'm still able to leave something, do hereby leave myself to Ruth Chapman.
- I, Jayne Nance, of dilapidated mind and shapely body, leave my ability to eat in shorthand to my skinny sister Betty.
- I, Johnny Nance, having a backward mind and diseased body, leave my skinny legs and shy personality to Chris Hammond.

- I, Barbara Nicholson, being of absent mind and butter fingers, do hereby leave my ability to lose things to everyone, hoping they lose everything.
- I, Wallace Nicholson, take a little knowledge which has taken several years to earn, and also everything else that is not tied down.
- I, Wanda Norman, being short, do hereby leave my ability to wreck the Driver's Ed. car to my sister Cindy.
- I, Janice Norton, leave my ability to get loose to Alma and my messy locker to Kathy Rogers.
- I, Kathy Ozment, of decreasing mind and increasing body, leave my peroxide and toners to Nora Irwin, who has more fun as a blonde than I did.
- I, Edwina Parker, leave to my brother Mike, Miss Wingard, my senior theme on mermaids, and my heartaches.
- I, Bonnie Payne, being of cracked brain and overstacked frame, leave Coosa and the nice fragrance of our neighbor Kraft.
- I, Ann Pearson, do hereby leave my practice set in bookkeeping to anyone of sound mind.
- I, Anthony Phillips, being of weak mind and weak body, leave to the school of Coosa, my teachers.
- I, Wade Pittman, being of feeble mind and weak body, hereby leave nothing, because I need everything I got, except my nickname, "Swim."
- I, Ronald E. Perry, being of wornout mind and skinny body, do hereby leave! (Finally)
- I, Thomas Posey, hereby leave my good looks and strong mind to Harry Montgomery in hopes he is as successful as I was.
- I, Cynthia Richards, leave my ability to get into Home Ec. III, without knowing how to sew, to any freshman willing to try.
- I, James Richardson, having a dirty mind and weak body, leave my motorcycle handlebars to Gene Cowart to put on his mop handle.
- I, Martha Roberts, being of little mind and little body, do hereby leave my ability to do math problems to Kathy Sloman.
- I, Ronnie Rose, hereby leave my ability to UH to Chris Hammond and my ability to dunk a basketball to Coach "Shorty" Brannon.
- I, Debbie Rucker, being all tongue, do hereby leave my motor mouth to anyone fast enough to catch it.
- I, Richard Schwartz, leave a happy heart and a warm smile to Miss Wingard, who needs them.
- I, Kathy Sims, being of sound mind and body, leave my ability to keep quiet in Miss Wingard's room to Susan McCleod.
- I, Wayne Staney, leave Listerine to Mr. Nelson, a Book on self-defense to Mr. Parker, and my book How To Grow Tall to Miss Wingard.
- I, Kendall Stewart, being of unsound mind and body, do hereby leave to Miss Wingard, a used note card; Mrs. Long, a torn triplicate copy; and to Mrs. Bentley, a broken Beta Club pen.
- I, Randy Stokes, being of sound mind and flabby body, do hereby leave a "You know what I mean" to Mrs. Nelson.
- I, Ernie Studard, having half mind and weak body, leave to any junior my intelligence, knowledge, and love for government and English.
- I, Suzanne Shiflett, do hereby leave the new majorette corps a dove of peace to settle their fights, and to Bitsy Burton, my ability to get into fights.
- I, Brenda Tate, being of sound body and no brain, leave my American Government book to Mr. Nelson, in hopes that he can keep up with it.
- I, Sandra Tolbert, being of worn-out mind and skinny body, do hereby leave my College Board scores to Pat Harper and my curly hair to Bitsy Burton.
- I, Michael Trapp, being of minute mind and extravagant body, do hereby leave 50 healthy pounds to "Weasel" Worsham.
- I, Brenda Tyler, being of no mind, do hereby leave my ability to get "Flipped in the gravel," to Joyce Tyler.
- I, Gene Vick, being of not much mind or body, hereby leave Mr. Tidmore my Mo-ped and a great big smooch to Miss Wingard.
- I, Betty Walters, do hereby leave my place in Miss Wingard's room to some Lucky junior.
- I, Joe Walker, being of sound mind and good spirit, do hereby leave my seat in Miss Wingard's room to Wesley Cabe and my parking place to James Little.
- I, Nell Weeks with no mind but much body, leave Steve and my Braces to Miss Wingard, and "Muther" to my sister Jane.
- I, Terry Weeks, of unsound mind and unfit body, do hereby leave I hope!

- I, Bobbie Blankenship Westmoreland, leave my ability to run through the band, cheerleading squad, and marriage, all in one high school career.
- I, David Whatley, being of unsound mind and slim body, leave myself a desk in Miss Wingard's room just in case.
- I, Sara White, being of little hair, do hereby leave my ability to erase triplicate copies to next year's annual staff.
- I, Eddye Whitfield, being of exact mind and tall body, do hereby leave my ability to operate a stop watch to Miss Wingard.
- I, Sherry Willis, leave my ability to blush to the girl's basketball team and nine hundred dozen doughnuts to Mrs. Wagner's homeroom.
- I, Kathy Wilson, leave to Mrs. Green's 68-69 fifth period "Romper Room" a set of How to Study Guides.

Signed, sealed, published, and declared by the senior class of Coosa High School as and for our Last Will and Testament.
